Defendant.	)

Pursuant to the Court's April 4, 2019 Order, ECF No. 104, and the Sixth Circuit's July 23, 2019 Order, 6th Cir. ECF No. 20-2, Defendant respectfully submits the following status report, informing the Court of SSA's progress in completing the windfall-offset recalculations for the Class.

Recalculations are in progress for all class members.<sup>1</sup> As of October 23, 2019, 15,934 cases are awaiting quality review after completion of Part 1.<sup>2</sup> An additional 86,247 cases are being processed in Part 1. There are 6 cases awaiting quality review after completion of Part 2. An additional 2,794 cases are being processed in Part 2. Finally, 4,510 cases are being processed in Part 3.

As of October 23, 2019, SSA has completed<sup>3</sup> 20,200 recalculations. Of those 20,200 recalculations, underpayments were due in 10,535 cases, totaling approximately $15,540,000 prior to withholding for payment of class counsel's fee. The highest underpayment was $27,316.98. No underpayments were due in 8,853 cases. Five hundred and seventy overpayments have been assessed.

Additionally, in the course of performing recalculations, SSA has determined that a small number of putative class members it identified in 2018 are not subject to the harm that is the basis of this suit because they are not owed a windfall-offset recalculation. Specifically, these individuals do not have a concurrent benefits period and/or do not have a corresponding attorneys' fee, meaning that no recalculation is due. SSA has thus far identified an estimated 242 individuals who fit this description. Individuals who are not owed a windfall-offset recalculation will nonetheless receive a notice stating that no recalculation is due.

<sup>3</sup> Because fees for class counsel have not yet been determined, "completed" in this context refers to the completion of the recalculation and the issuance of any underpayment, if due, while withholding 20% of the underpayment for payment of potential attorney fees. However, in cases in which the class member is deceased, incarcerated, or otherwise not able to receive the underpayment due, the agency has calculated the underpayment and withheld 20% for potential attorney fees, but may not have released a payment pending identification of an individual eligible to receive the payment.
